

HERRON HIGH SCHOOL

2012-2013 Performance Analysis

Core Question 1: Is the educational program a success?

1.1. Is the school's academic performance meeting state expectations, as measured by Indiana's accountability system?
Does not meet standard	School has received an "F" for the most recent school year OR has received a "D" for the last two consecutive years.
Approaching standard	School has received a "D" for the most recent school year.
Meets standard	School has received either a "B" or "C" for the most recent school year.
Exceeds standard	School has received an "A" for the most recent school year.

2012-13 Performance: Exceeds standard

Beginning with the 2011-12 school year, the Indiana Department of Education (IDOE) received a waiver from the United States Department of Education to replace the state's measure of Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) with the A-F accountability system.

In the 2011-12 school year, the Mayor's Office of Education Innovation determined that Core Question 1.1 would use the state's new accountability system based on the above rubric.

Herron High School received an "A" for the most recent school year under the state's A-F school accountability model. Based on its performance in the 2012-13 academic year, the school has earned the rating "Exceeds standard".

1.2. Are students making substantial and adequate gains over time, as measured using the Indiana Growth Model?
STANDARD	Value-added analysis indicates that more than 75%-89% of tested students made sufficient gains.

2012-13 Performance: Not Applicable.

Herron High School serves grades 9-12. Analysis of substantial and adequate gains over time is only available currently for schools serving grades K-8.

1.3. Is the school outperforming schools that the students would have been assigned to attend?
STANDARD	School's overall performance in terms of both proficiency and/or growth is generally as good as that of the schools the students would otherwise have been assigned to attend.

2012-13 Performance: Not Applicable.

Herron High School serves grades 9-12. Analysis of the school's performance in comparison to schools students would have been assigned to attend is currently only available for schools serving grades K-8.
